

Karima Gibson is a veteran educator. Ms. Gibson has spent the entire twenty years of her career teaching in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. Throughout her professional teaching career, she has had the pleasure of teaching various grades and a variety of subjects at different edifices of learning throughout the city. She has cultivated meaningful and lasting relationships with her students and their families, that reach far beyond the classroom. She volunteers more than 800 hours annually to students and their families without any desire for accolades; she provides tutoring and life skills that are both practical and beneficial to their daily lives. Ms. Gibson is also a resident of Baltimore City and both of her children attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She holds a Master's Degree from The University of Notre Dame of Maryland (2005) in Educational Leadership. She was awarded a Bachelor's Degree from The City University of New York with a major in Education and a minor in Psychology (1997). She is a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Sankofa Emma.

Karima is our Project Coordinator for Youth Works. She is DOPE!
